

Friday Morning

Dear Bella

I send a letter of W's received last night & one from J. R. We thought at first to put it away for you but after we got your note we opened it to learn particulars of Abby Mandale. I am very sorry for her sisters.
I send W's letter that you may write to him from here & look about it respect to the books. There must be an English edition of Miss Edgeworth in Boston.

We are all well. I saw as far as the old North St. St. yesterday.

Love to Mary.

I am ever A.W. to
I have been away for you as N. B. paper.
